Foreword

"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man." J.M.S. has accepted this as its yardstick for measuring growth. We have tried through various snaps and write-ups to portray this fourfold school program.

The staff wishes to express sincere thanks to parents, teachers, classmates, and friends for helping to make this 1957 Mem-O-Re a reality.

L.J.S.

Dedication

To our parents whose loving guidance and sacrifices have made possible our attendance at this Christian
Day School we lovingly dedicate this 1957 Mem-O-Re.

Board of Education

The School Board consists of nine men, chosen annually by the patrons. The Board represents all the congregations of the Johnstown District churches. They represent a good cross section of activities, thus bringing together ideals and ideas from these various fields to be used in giving personality to the school.

Monthly meetings are held to discuss problems of the school as they are presented by various groups or persons.

Financing the school has been a major problem for the Board. Progress has been made in the new addition to the building but many items are undone due to circumstances beyond our control. We do pay tribute to the patrons who have stood by us in meeting the budget. Such a great work as ours cannot prosper without the wholehearted prayer and financial support of every patron.

We are grateful to our faithful, untiring staff of teachers for their high ideals to bring the best to our boys and girls. May the Lord's richest blessings be ours; teachers, board members, and patrons as we join together our prayers and finances to successfully achieve with the Lord the desire of our hearts, a Christian education for our children.

Dear Graduating Seniors:

You are graduating from a school born of prayer, sacrifice, self-denial, and Christian brotherhood. Your parents have sent you here because they had a special love for you. They have sacrificed to make this school possible. They have spent many hard-earned dollars; they have given, freely, hours of labor in co-operative efforts when special projects were in progress. They have prayed that your stay here might make you men and women for God.

Your teachers have prayed for you. They have given their time at a very sacrificial rate of pay to give you their best. They have done a conscientious job--have not sacrificed quality for the fact that they were getting less.

God has been good to you. He has given into your hand so much of everything. He is also going to expect much--just like your earthly parents. But I believe that you all realize the value of the opportunity you have had. You are, to my thinking, a very fine group of seniors. You represent the kind of students we like to have go out into life to represent our work here. I am well pleased, and I know I will not be disappointed.

In Christian love,

Sanford G. Shetler

For you, Seniors, the words of a commencement speaker still ring in my ears,
"Slightly soiled, but greatly reduced in price."
Dr. Wilson was speaking of store merchandise, but comparing the young life as a parallel. "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit
you like men, be strong." My wish for you:
That you might "bubble forth, or pour forth"
the life-giving stream of life to men who need it!

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve," said Joshua to the Israelites centuries ago. "But," he continued, "as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." I am glad that you have already made your choice with Joshua. My prayer is that you may serve faithfully "As unto Him" until He bestows His honorary "Approved unto God" upon you.

Miss Kauffman--Adviser

Our hopes looked awfully dim for a large class at the end of last year but they have risen with the first day of school this year when Mary Jane Fronzoli and Avon Yoder joined our ranks. Thus, our class has stayed exactly the same size since our sophomore year, with five girls and six boys. Our class is the first with the most number of students to have completed all their education thus far at J.M.S. The past year was highlighted for us seniors by our class tour to Washington, D.C., in April, our class night in the early spring, and finally, the baccalaureate and commencement. Being a senior, it is hard to believe that this is your last year of high school. What will the coming years hold for us?

Class Motto--"AS UNTO HIM"

Class Poem--

AS UNTO HIM

The unknown future lies ahead,
We cannot change the past,
We are living for the present
As unto Him--our task.

Whatever we have done for God,
Whatever we do yet
Will never pay even in part,
As unto Him--our debt.

Help us, Dear Lord, to live for thee
Each moment of our days,
That every task may prove to be
As unto Him--always.

Since we can no longer follow,
But must come forth to lead,
Help us to guide, that we may show
As unto Him--we lead.

--Mary Jane Fronzoli

Junior-Senior Banquet

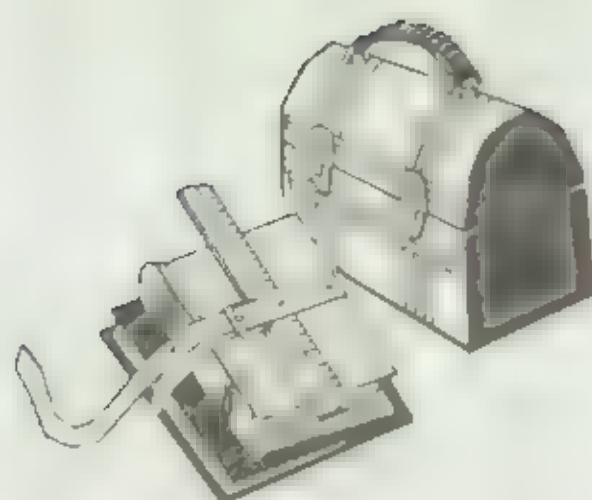

On the afternoon of May 11, 1956, excitement was at its peak. After all those mysterious-looking posters appearing on the bulletin board, the Seniors wondered where the banquet would be held.

At six o'clock the Juniors escorted the Seniors and Faculty to the Y Dairy Dine. The theme, "Civil War Days," was set forth by the decorations and interesting program.

A Congressional Address was given by Abe Lincoln, David Shetler. Paul Lehman freed the Seniors from the bondage of studying with his "Emancipation Proclamation." Special music was furnished by the Carpetbaggers, a men's quartet, and the Abolitionists, a girls' trio. The Class Will was given by Joan Hershberger, and the Class Prophecy, by Bro. Shetler. Eugene Herr, our guest speaker, gave us an inspirational talk challenging us to serve Christ.

The evening ended with the realization that another school term had drawn to a close.

High School

Juniors

Our "family" consists of nine children and our father, Bro. Shetler. At our family councils (class meetings) Moses Yoder takes his place as president; Leroy Beisel, vice-president; Phyllis Lehman, secretary; and Harold Thomas, Jr., treasurer. Bro. Shetler is very helpful in giving us "fatherly" advice.

In order to increase the family budget we have had various projects. This year it was our duty to take our next-door-neighbors (the Seniors) to dine (Jr.-Sr. Banquet). We certainly had to hustle and bustle, but everything was wonderful!

Sophomores

Catherine Alwine

"Hey, do you kids have your Algebra done?"

David Pebley

"Tongue twisters? Oh, yes, Ticky ticky, timbo, oh, so nimbo..."

Willard Lehman

"Aw, come on, let's play ping-pong."

Hilda Miller

"No, it's this way, $(x^3+y)(x-y)$."

Bradley Yoder

"Way to chuck!"

Bernadine Thomas

"I was going to come, but I had to baby-sit."

Anita Shetler

"Oooh--nice goin'!"

Glenn Thomas, Jr.

"When do we eat?"

Grace Thomas

"Let's go and root for the sophomores."

Merle Cable

"No, that wasn't me; I was busy studying." (?)

Miss Amstutz--Adviser

In our first class meeting we elected the new member of our class, Bradley Yoder, as president and our last year's president, David Pebley, as vice-president. Other officers are Anita Shetler, secretary; Willard Lehman, treasurer. We got the year started off right by selling the first meal of the year and have enjoyed serving several times since. Our most important class social event was the class night in the spring. As we look forward to the years ahead we want to do our part in preparing for Christian service. Since our class is rather small, we hope that a few members will be added to our group in the next two years.

Freshmen

Eight ambitious students came into the Freshman class this year. Class meetings get going with Ernest Spory as president, Carl Alwine as vice-president, Myra Shetler to keep notes, and Paul Harshberger to carry the money. Bro. Teague serves as class adviser and provided us with an enjoyable class night. This year was our beginning and we are looking forward to many more spiritual, educational, and social pleasures.

Religious Life

Spiritual Emphasis Week

Galatians 2:20

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me:
and the life which I now live in the flesh I live
by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me,
and gave himself for me.

"To promote spiritual growth in the life of each individual student" was the goal of the Religious Life Committee during the 1956-57 school year.

In addition to our daily devotional program and weekly prayer meeting, we had a few special features. Each morning during "Missions Week," November 12-16, men representing different areas of mission work talked to us concerning evangelistic efforts in all parts of the world.

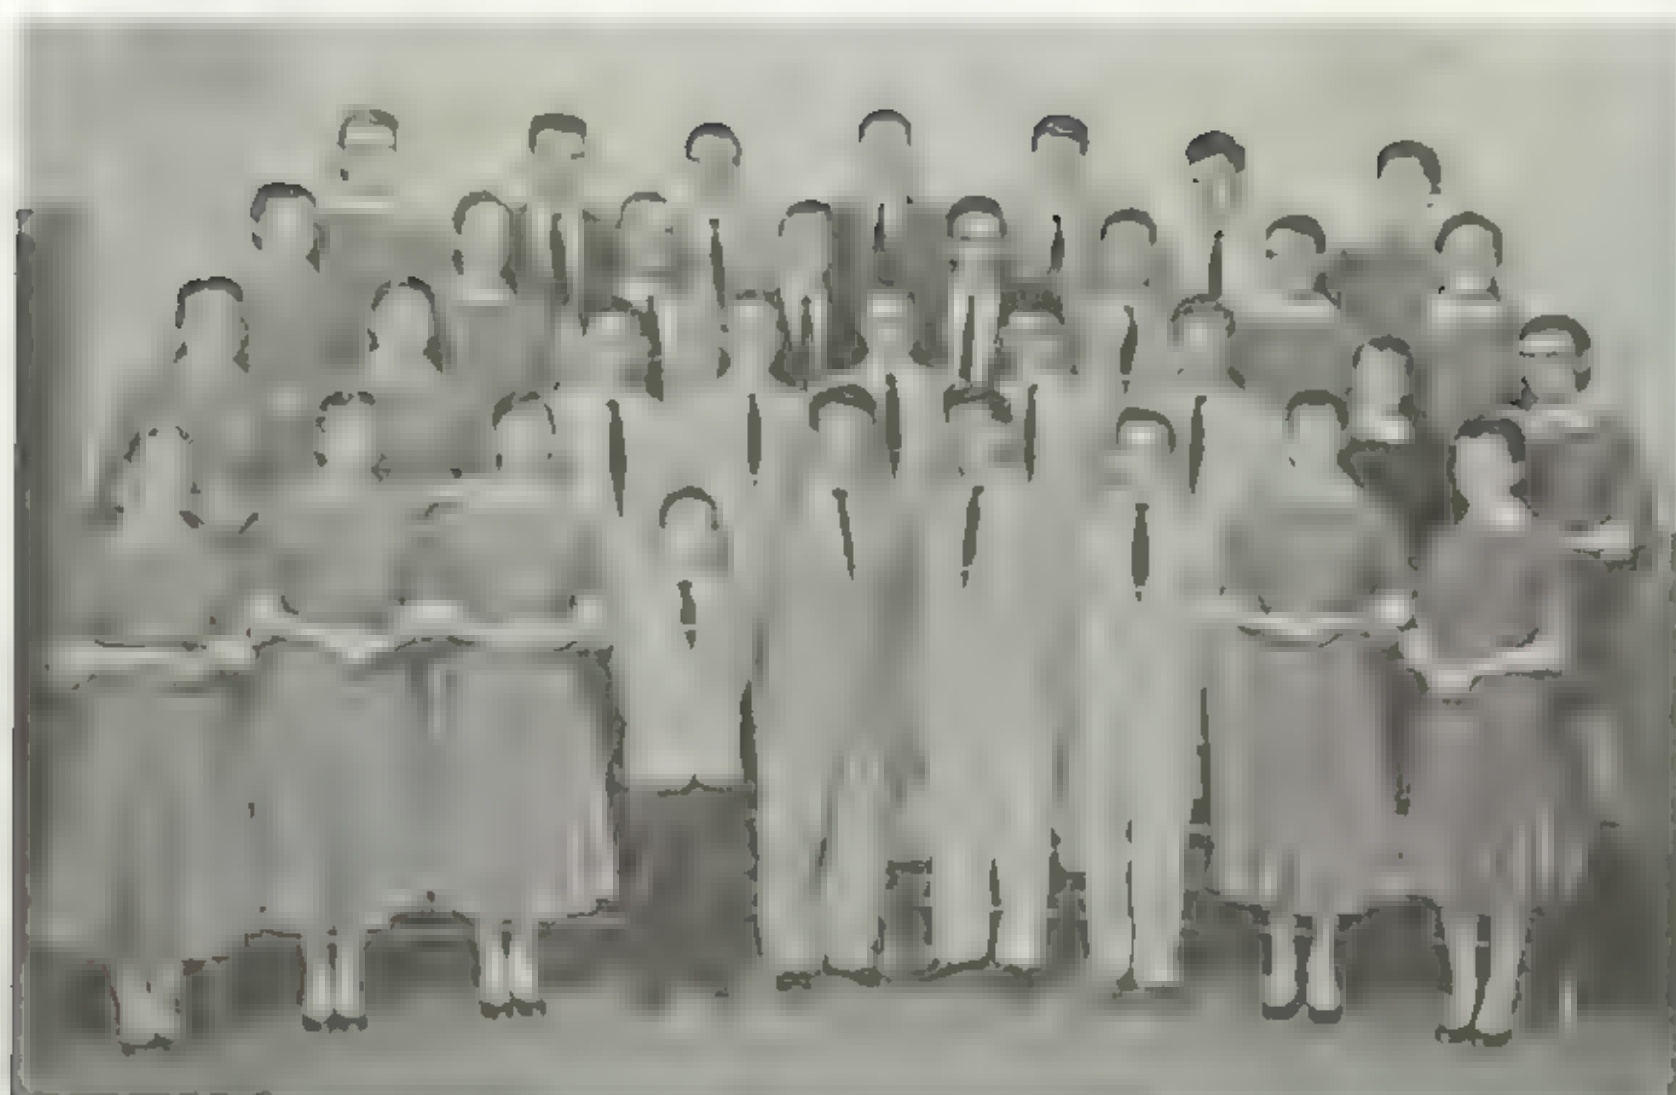

During Spiritual Emphasis Week, Brother Eugene Herr conducted our chapel services each morning and interviewed each student. We as students had the opportunity to talk over some of our problems with Brother Eugene.

We, the Religious Life Committee, wish to thank everyone for their co-operation in making this year a success.

"Let there be music from the fruited plain....songs of men whose faith has grown....songs that breathe a fervent prayer."

Every Friday you could have heard melodious voices drifting over the beautiful campus of J.M.S. Of course, it was the "Touring Chorus" practicing for the annual trip to several churches that are fortunate enough to hear them!

This is probably exaggerated a little, but seriously, we did enjoy singing together at various churches this year. We hope you have enjoyed hearing our programs as much as we enjoyed giving them. Oh, yes, I almost forgot, I wanted to tell you that we are looking forward to seeing you again next year.

"Did I hear someone say the Social Committee is having a meeting?" "Yes, that is us." It is our responsibility to plan and direct the socials of J.M.S. Hayride, watermelon cut, "good ole" box social, scavenger hunt, and "May Day" Banquet are the products of our plans. All these activities provide relaxation from the daily routine of school life.

Physical Education

Sports this year at J.M.S. were well organized. In the fall, a fine flag football tournament was staged. For that tournament, two teams were chosen. Then, in between football and basketball seasons, soccer was introduced as a sport to J.M.S. Both boys and girls played tournaments in soccer. Then came basketball into the spotlight. The usual freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior teams made up the boys' league. In the girls' league, it was, well, seniors and more seniors, no one else had a chance. As soon as the snow had melted from our athletic field, our time was devoted to training for our annual alumni baseball game. To wind up the sports year, we had our annual field day of track.

All ready

Fidelian Literary

We are Fidelians, the group at J.M.S. with vision and vigor. Interesting... unusual...inspiring...entertaining...relaxing...are words to describe our literary. It is the Fidelians that produce a wide variety of programs which increase the originality, abilities, and experience of every member. Variety... action...enthusiasm...we have it! We are the Fidelians...first with the best!

Neo-Discarian Literary

Come right on in! We're having literary this period. We are the Neos--naturally, we think we are the best! Today we're having a debate.

We have had quite a variety of programs--skits, contests, parliamentary law drills, and games. Literary helps us to develop our abilities and it also gives us experience in public speaking. We are the great, the interesting, the talented Neos!
